No 934.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Petersburg, May 27. O. S.

YESTERDAY an Express arrived at Court, with Advice, that the Velt Marshal de Munich march'd on the 18th Inst. with the greatest Part of the Army towards the Dniester.

Buda, May 30. O. S. We have received Advice, that the Turks are returned before New Orsova, and have blocked it up with near 25,000 Men; and that the Bashaw, by whom they are commanded, has acquainted the Governor of the Place, that if he did not surrender it in 5 Days, he should have no Capitulation granted him. We have Intelligence also, that the Grand Vizier is arrived on the Banks of the Danube, and on the March with his Army towards Widdin; but we are assur'd that the greatest Part of his Forces is too far behind to join him soon.

Vienna, June 3. O. S. 'Tis resolv'd that the Bulk of the Imperial Army shall assemble forthwith in the Bannat of Temiswar. The Letters of the 27th ult from Belgrade say, that General Neuperg is set out thence to put himself at the Head of some Troops to drive the Turks from Meadia, and is to be seconded by the Troops under the Prince de Lobkowitz, who commands in Transilvania. The Velt Marshal de Wallis is also to command a separate Body to dislodge the Turks who have blocked up Orsova; during which, all the other Troops are to assemble along the Danube. We hear that the Turks have released some Imperial Officers whom they had taken Prisoners, upon their Parole of Honour to Return upon Demand; which is the first Civility of that Kind which the Infidels have shew'd to the Christians in all the Wars they have had with them. The Prince of Saxe-Gotha, who is a Lieutenant General in the Emperor's Service, set out Yesterday for Hungary. 'Tis said that the Velt Marshal de Konigsberg has had a Fit of the Apoplectick Kind.

Leghorn, May 27. O. S. They write from Smyrna, that the Rebel Saris-Bey-Oglow, after having raised Contributions from that City, went to Guzelhisar, but the Inhabitants taking Arms and joining the Troops of the Garrison, made so vigorous a Salley upon him, that after a very sharp Battle they oblig'd him to fly, and to leave a great many of his Soldiers on the Place, besides almost all the Booty that he had taken in his several Excursions.

Milan, May 31. O. S. We hear that the Court of Vienna has referred the controverted Fiefs in the Tortonese to France, as Guarantee of the Emperor's Possessions in Italy. Mean time the Court of Turin seems resolv'd to maintain its Pretensions to those Fiefs, by a Writing which it has publish'd, to prove the King's Right to those Fiefs, and by keeping 35000 Men on Foot of regular Forces, besides Militia to support it. The Queen of the Two Sicilies is said thro' Ferrara for Faenza.

Genoa, May 28. O. S. We are assured that a foreign Ship came to an Anchor lately at Aleria in the Isle of Corsica, with an Officer on board, said to be the Baron de Droft, Nephew to the Baron de Neuhoft, still in Holland, who sent a Person of Confidence ashore, to assure the Malecontents that the Succours which had been promised by the Baron wou'd arrive very soon, and to exhort them not to submit to the Republick; but they made answer, that they cou'd not now dispense with their Performance of those Promises, which their Deputies had made to the Count de Boissieux.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, June 15. On Tuesday the Magistrates and Town Council waited of his Grace the Duke of Argyle, and returned him their sincere Thanks for the many good Offices he had done the Town. And Yesterday in the Afternoon the Freedom of the City was given to Colonel Warburton, Brother-in-Law to his Grace, Captain Campbel, Member of Parliament for the Shire of Argyle, and Mr. Campbel of Stonfield, Sheriff-depute of that County: On which Occasion the Council met, the Musick play'd, the Soldiers fired, loyal Healths went round, and only Night put an End to the Mirth, and drinking Prosperity to the Royal Family, the Duke of Argyle, &c.

Last Saturday the Rev. Mr. Bell, Minister at Mor-dington, had his House burnt down by Fire, occasioned by a careless Maid Servant putting too much Broom and other Combustibles in the Chimney. His whole Furniture and Books were consumed, having no more Time than to save their Lives.

Yesterday her Grace the Dutchess Dowager of Gordon purchased at a Roup before the Lords of Session, the Lands and Estate of Prestonhall in East-Lothian, for the Sum of 8877 l. 7 s. and 3-4ths, the Price put thereon by their Lordships.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Durham, June 17. Last Sunday being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Accession to the Throne, the Worshipful George Dale, Mayor of this City, accompanied by the Aldermen, &c. went in Procession to the Abbey Church, with Banners flying, and Musick playing before them, where an excellent Sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Bland; and in the Evening the Magistrates repaired to the Tolbooth, where his Majesty's and other Loyal Healths were drunk, and a Bonfire made in the Market-Place; in short, the Day concluded with Ringing of Bells, Drums beating, Firing of Guns, and all other possible Demonstration of Joy and Loyalty.

Gloucester, June 17. The Anniversary of his Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, was observed here with the usual Demonstrations of Joy.

Last Saturday Robert Shurmur was committed to our Castle, on Suspicion of stealing 22 Yards of Cloth from Richard Hughes of Cuberly, which were Advertis'd in this Paper of the 16th of last Month.

We hear from Stow o'th'Wold, that on Saturday Night Edward Rowland of Winchcombe in this County, who was taken up there the Day before for stealing a Horse, and sent to the Blind-house till they could convey him to our Castle, hang'd himself: He was about 18 or 19 Years of Age.

From Milverton near Wiveliscomb, in Somersetshire, we have an Account, that on Saturday last a Female Infant was born there, who is to be baptis'd Elizabeth: She is the Daughter of (1) Edward Hancock, who is the Son of (2) Edward Hancock, the Iron Slea-maker, and (3) Mary his Wife. The said Mary is the Daughter of (4) John and (5) Mary Buxton. The Infant is also the Daughter of (6) Mary Hancock, who is the Daughter of (7) Robert Warren and (8) Mary Warren: The said Robert is the Son of (9) Lawrence and (10) Elizabeth Warren; and the said Mary Warren is the Daughter of (11) Elizabeth Bailey. It is very remarkable, that this Infant is descended from eleven Persons, who are all now living in the said Parish of Milverton, and are all healthy working People.

HOME PORTS.

Bristol, June 19. Saturday arrived the Withers, Pitman, from Jamaica; Yesterday in the Afternoon the Virginia, Lewis, from Virginia; the Brilling-ton, Whitefield, from Oporto; and this Day the Buxton, Wamsley, from Cadiz.

Dartmouth, June 18. The two Ships mentioned in my last, belonging to his most Christian Majesty, sailed from hence this Morning with the Wind at N. W.

Pool, June 19. Since my last sailed the Blanchard, Manton, for London; and the Chatfield Jolliff, Brixy, to take in Rice at Cowes for Lisbon.

Deal, June 20. Remains in the Downs his Majesty's Ship the Faulkland; the outward bound that sailed Yesterday, are put back. Arrived from Holland the Winter Galley, Daintier, for Philadelphia; the Queen Elizabeth, Hope, for ditto; the Ellen, Raul, from Majorca; the Sarah, Calcor, from Cagliari; the St. Quintin, Petter, from St. Ubes; the St. Quintin, Canham, from ditto; the Happy Return, Burton, from Lisbon; the Leopard, Hardy, from Leghorn; the Dispatch, Cole, from ditto; the Mary, Israel, from Smyrna. Wind S. S. W. blows hard, and dirty Weather.

The following Lines having been handed about in Manuscript, and suppos'd to be done by an eminent Hand, we thought we could not better oblige our Readers than by inserting them.

To the Right Hon Sir R—W—, upon the Loss of his Lady.

WHILST disappointed Kraves and fickle Fools
Wou'd Rule, themselves, or growl whoever
Rul s,

With factious Fury and relentless Hate,
Labour'd to sink thee, W—, with the State;
Whilst impious Slanders whistl'd round thy Fame,
And base Assassins made thy Life their Aim;
'Thou flood'st the Torrent, fearless and serene,
And not one Terror on thy Brow was seen:
But now a Friend is lost, a much-lov'd Wife,
That first, fair, fav'rite, Blessing of thy Life;
Who made the Load sit light, thou'rt doom'd to bear,
Smooth'd ev'ry Cross, and smil'd on ev'ry Care.
She, She from thy fond Bosom snatch'd away,
Then when the Time was come, the long-wish'd Day,
When to the utmost Height ye both might prove,
The Joys of Splendor, Ease, and mutual Love:
What home-felt gen'rous Anguish swells thy Breast!
What big tumultuous Sorrows stand confest!
How full employ'd each Instrument of Woe!
How Sighs burst frequent, how the Eyes o'erflow!
O had those Sighs ne'er burst, those Tears ne'er ran,
We still had deem'd thee something more than Man.

So Rome's great Father, godlike Brutus, who Sustain'd, with Smiles, the Rabble's Rage like you;
Yet when 'twas told, Thy dear-lov'd Portia's dead,
He wept, he sigh'd, he groan'd, he droop'd the Head;
His dauntless Spirit languish'd o'er her Tomb,
And for awhile forgot there was a Rome.

L O N D O N.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France, with Letters of Saturday last.

An Arret is published at Paris, dated the 9th Instant O. S. which permits the Importation of Lead and Tin from England, into any of the Ports of France, on the Payment of three Livres for every hundred Weight, besides the Duties fixed on Tin by the Ordonnance of 1681.

The Paris A-la-main not only mentions the Death of the Duke of Berwick, the Spanish Ambassador at the Court of Naples, in the 45th Year of his Age; but adds, that Cardinal Albani died the 9th Inst. Aet. 74.

We hear that Turpin, the notorious Robber, was very lately seen at Lisbon.

The Abbey, Capt. Kell, bound from Norway for London, was forced on Shore near Orfordness last Saturday, the 17th Instant, in a violent Gale of Wind and Rain.

Also the Carr, bound from Newcastle for London, was the same Day forced ashore near the Swin.

By the Ann, Capt. Dickenson, lately arrived from St. Christopher's, in the River, we have an Account, that the Success, Capt. Sims, bound from London to Virginia, proving Leaky, put into Antigua to refit; but six Days after he left that Place for Virginia, was taken by a Spanish Schooner, who seiz'd and used them very barbarously, and put Capt. Sims and his Mate in his own long Boat; with Difficulty they got to St. Thomas, and from thence to St. Eustatia, from thence was carried to St. Christopher's, in a Sloop commanded by Capt. Elmes. The English Captains at St. Christopher's collected a handsome Sum for their Relief, and Capt. Sims intended to go to Puerto Rico, to claim his Ship and Cargo.

Letters from Cadiz of the 10th of June say, that the Commerce from Lima would be at Porto Bello in December next, and the Fair would be kept in a few Months after. That three Men of War, with a large Treasure, and the St. Bruno, with Hydes, were to leave Buenos Ayres for Cadiz by the Middle of April-last. That the Azogues, or the Quicksilver Ships from Vera Cruz, were expected at Cadiz in the Month of July.

Last Night a most elegant and magnificent Fire-work was play'd off in St. James's Square in Honour of the Christening of the young Prince. In the Centre of the Balcon was erected a fine transparent Obelisk, forty Foot high, adorned with various Designs, Arms, Mottos, &c. On the Base was represented,

1st. Hymen presenting the new-born Prince to Britannia, with this Motto, Nato Casari Festus.

2d. Minerva educating the young Prince, the Emblems of Arts and Arms lying by; Motto, He Tibi Artas.

3d. The Prince conducted by Time, receiving the Crown from the Hands of Britannia; Motto, Aderit jam Tempus.

4th. The Prince on the Throne, supported by Liberty and Justice; Plenty, with her Cornucopia, kneeling before him; Motto, Patriis Virtutibus.

On the First Division of the Obelisk.

The Arms of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

The Arms of Saxe Gotha.

The Arms of the City of London, with the Regalia.

The Arms of the Admiralty, with this Motto, Illi Robor & Æs triplex.

On the Second Division.

1st. Neptune supporting the British Colours.

2d. The City of London represented by a Woman, with a mural Crown on her Head, and a Sword in her Hand.

3d. Trade and Navigation supporting a Ship, by her the Compass and Ensign of Trade.

4th. Ceres, with the Ensign of Agriculture, &c.

On the Third Division.

Palms, Laurels and Trophies.

On the Fourth Division.

Open Lights disposed in a beautiful Manner; at the Top of which was placed a transparent Star, and the Whole crown'd with the Feathers. On Wings which projected from the Angles of the Obelisk were various Fire-works; at the Corners of the Base play'd four fine Fire-wheels; above which were placed four Orange Trees in Vases, adorn'd with Golden Fruit, which burst off in Fire, while four Brilliant Fountains play'd out of the midst of the Trees; above these, in the Middle of a Circle of Tapers on each Wing, arose four more Fountains of Fire, while another discharged itself from the Feathers at Top, twenty Foot high, and descended in a copious Shower: From out the Star a Fire-work was discharged, which overspread great Part of the Square; and at last a Mine was sprung, which in an instant destroyed the beautiful Pageant. During the playing of the Works, were several Discharges of fine Rockets and Cannon; Healths were drank, accompanied with Kettle Drums and Trumpets, &c. while the People, who were very numerous, expressed their Joy on this happy Occasion, in the loudest Acclamations: The Balcon was surrounded with large Tapers, the Light of which striking on the Frame of the Obelisk, which was all gilt, had an exceeding fine Effect: The Rails and Stone Pyramids were illuminated around with a vast Number of Lights elegantly disposed; but what added much to the Beauty of the Design was, that every thing was ordered in so complete and regular a Manner, that no Damage could probably accrue to any of the Spectators.

Yesterday Morning at half an Hour after Nine o'Clock, his Majesty and the Duke on Horseback, attended by several of the Ministers of State, and Officers of the Army, came into Hyde Park, and rode up to the Right of the First Regiment, then came down the Front of the Three Regiments, and went up the Rear, then placing himself in the Front, they went thro' their Exercise by Beat of Drum, and a Signal given by Col. Fuller, on the Top of a Caravan erected in the Center for that Purpose; after which they marched by his Majesty in Review, who was pleased to express a great Satisfaction at their Appearance and good Order: They afterwards fired in Platoons, Hors. Files, Grand Volleys, &c. and about half an Hour after One, his Majesty returned to Kensington to Dinner.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Right Hon. the Earl of Berkeley to be Colonel of a Company in the Second Regiment of Foot Guards, in the room of Col. Eaton, deceased.

Yesterday John Clavering, Esq; was presented in Hyde Park to a Pair of Colours in the said Regiment.

Last Tuesday William Morgan, of Godolphin in the County of Cornwall, Esq; was married at Weybridge in the County of Surrey, to Miss Leak, a near Relation to the Earl of Scarisdale, a young Lady of a handsome Fortune.

Tuesday se'night the Reverend Mr. Benson, M. A. was installed a Prebendary in the Cathedral Church of Durham, in the room of the Rev. Dr. Chandler, deceased.

The Rev. Mr. Bell, M. A. is presented to the Rectory of Kirby in the County and Diocese of York, void by the Death of the last Incumbent.

Yesterday the famous Isabella Raton, Sister to the noted Moll Harvey, was committed to Newgate by Col. De Veil, on the Oath of Mr. Butler, for picking his Pocket of a Gold Watch, a Silver Tobacco Box, half a Guinea in Gold, and 7s. 6d. in Silver, his Property: She was many Hours under Examination, during which time she behaved in a most profligate and impudent Manner, abusing the Justice prodigiously in the Execution of his Office, and using many Threatnings towards him, attempting several Times to strike him, and beating several Persons present.

Another Person was committed at the same time, who came on her Behalf, and behaved much in the same Manner; for which we hear they will be both indicted at the approaching Sessions.

Yesterday one Walker and Glenton, late two Constables at Scarborough, who was lately committed by the Judges of the Court of King's Bench to the King's Bench Prison, for permitting a Person to escape out of their Custody on Suspicion of murdering a Custom-house Officer there; and the Court pronounced the following Sentence, That they should be imprisoned for three Years, and to be fined a Mark each.

This Day is Publish'd,

The 2d Edition, in Two Volumes in Ocho, Revised and Corrected by NATHANIEL HOOKE, Esq; Translator of the Travels of Cyrus, and the Life of the Archbishop of Cambray,

THE History of the Conquest of MEXICO by the SPANIARDS. Translated into English from the Original Spanish of Don Antonio de Solis, Secretary and Historiographer to his Catholick Majesty.

By THOMAS TOWNSEND, Esq; late Lieutenant Colonel in Brigadier General Newton's Regiment.

Printed for T. Woodward, at the Half-Moon between the Two Temple Gates; and H. Lintor, at the Cross-Keys against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street.

The only true Specifick Tincture For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Disorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given such entire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above these Twenty Years past, by its vastly exceeding all other Things, either formerly invented or lately contriv'd for these Purposes.

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and instant Ease in the most tormenting Pain, when nothing else will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but absolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, so as certainly to prevent its Return.

At only once using it makes the foulest Teeth most beautifully white, assuredly fastens those that are loose, and infallibly preserves the Teeth from growing rotten, and those a little decay'd, from becoming worse: It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, causing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and also occasions a Sweet Breath.

It is neither disagreeable to the Smell or Taste, but effectually preserves the Teeth and Gums from all Manner of Foulness, Corruption, and Putrefaction, keeps them sound, good, and in most beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to alter the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Respect, as Persons innumerable have experienced.

But these inimitable Qualities, and solely inherent Virtues, by which it has justly gain'd such an universal and unparalleled great Character, have occasion'd, as usual in such cases, various and frequent Endeavours to mimic it, some under the same Name, and in the very Words of this Advertisement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman, at the Two Blue-Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Aldinories, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Attendance to those who take Quantities for Exportation.

For the P A L S Y, An infallible and speedy Cure, by one entire Medicine, being a most pleasant Chymical Tincture, to be taken in Drops, WHICH gives instant Relief in any Paralytick or Nervous Indispositions, proceeding from what Cause soever; and also in all Weaknesses, or Decays of Nature, whether from Old Age, or occasioned by continued Illness of Body, or any Irregularities of Living, such as hard Drinking, &c. whereby Nature is sorely weakened, and often in a Manner quite spoiled.

This infallible Chymical Tincture is endued with such specific Qualities, that it instantly enters the Nerves, the principal Seat of all Complaints of a Paralytick Kind, restores natural Heat and Strength to a Degree consistent with a good State of Health; and in a very little time perfectly cures all Paralytick Weaknesses of the longest standing; and also the severest or worst Effects of it either on old or young, such as shaking or trembling of the Limbs, Numbness, or even Deadness on any Part of the Body; as has been happily experienced by great Numbers of both Sexes, and all Ages, before this Publication.

As for any Weaknesses or Decays of Nature, by Age or otherwise, this Tincture has not its Equal; it is so gentle in Operation, as not to give the least Disturbance in taking, but in its Effects so strong and prevalent, that all Decays or Weaknesses of Nature, whether Paralytick, Convulsive, or any other Indispositions attending the Head and Nerves, are instantly relieved, and daily mended; so as in a very little Time a perfect Cure is accomplished.

It is exceeding pleasant to take, safe in Operation, and perfectly agreeable to the Stomach and Palate, greatly helps Digestion, causes a good Appetite, revives and strengthens the whole Human Frame, and is so safe and regular a Cure of all Paralytick, Convulsive, and other Nervous Indispositions, that nothing in the World was ever yet known to come near it.

It is sold by special Order of the Author, only at Mr. Markham's Toyshop, the Seven Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, for 3s. 6d. each Bottle.

To S M E L L to, &c.

The Most Noble, Volatile S M E L L I N G - B O T T L E in the World, lately much improved.

WHICH smelled to, instantly relieves Persons in the most dismal fainting or swooning FITS, and in a Moment removes Fluxings, Vapours, Dumbness, Head-ach, Megrims, &c. It takes off all heavy Sleepiness, retards Swoonings, keeps up the Spirits to a Miracle, and by its Use admits of no Fainting; but invigorates and enlivens the whole Man, recreates and makes cheerful, tho' never so sad, and in a Moment raises all the sensitive Faculties.

It is a So to be taken inwardly by Drops, which effectually takes off and eradicates the very Cause; for it potently relieves, comforts, and strengthens the Brain, creates and corroborates the Stomach, removes Sickness from it, helps Digestion, cleanses the Blood; and, in a Word, is the greatest Cephalick, Stomachick, Hepatick, and powerful Aromatick possible.

Whereas many Persons of both Sexes perfume their Handkerchiefs with a few Drops of it, and find that in using it so, it is of singular Service in all the Cases above-mentioned; and many Gentlemen, Ladies and Others use it after this Manner, purely because it gives a most fragrant and delicious Odour, that constantly both delights and relieves the Senses, not only better than any thing of a musky Kind, (which is really hurtful to most Constitutions) but it really takes off what such Things do occasion; and also relieves the Head and Brain from any ill Effects of common Snuff, and instantly diverts from, and prevents the bad Consequences of any sudden, nauseous, offensive Smells; therefore is extremely necessary for all Gentlemen, Ladies, &c. always to be carried in their Pockets.

Sold now only at Mrs. Markham's Toyshop, at the Seven Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and at Mr. King's Picture-shop in the Poultry, at 2s. 6d. each.
